This Week in Academics at Howard is a listing of special academic events published by the Office of the Provost. The objective of this project is to increase awareness of the rich array of intellectual and cultural special events that are sponsored by the academic units at Howard University. This Week in Academics at Howard is distributed to the University community via email and posted at www.provost.howard.edu at the beginning of each week. Schools, Colleges, Departments, other academic units and faculty members may submit announcements about academic events that are open to the University community for listing in This Week in Academics at Howard. Submissions must be received via email at provost@howard.edu by Wednesday of the week preceding the event.
